

Heart of the Continent

The City of Winnipeg is looking for a

Director of Legal Services

As the Director of Legal Services, you will be the chief legal officer for the City of Winnipeg and will have the exciting opportunity to provide the highest level of professional leadership and management to a team of solicitors providing legal advice and services in all areas of the law. You will define, develop and deliver programs and services responsive to the needs of City Council and the City's business units and will ensure the provision of guidance to boards and officials that constitute civic government, including the Mayor, City Council, City boards and commissions.

You are a member in good standing or entitled to be a member of The Law Society of Manitoba, and have considerable experience in municipal, corporate and commercial law. You have led and managed a team of solicitors in the provision of diverse legal services, and are results-oriented and skilled in managing complex multiple areas of activity in a fast-paced environment. You are knowledgeable of all current federal and provincial statutes, legislation, rulings, orders and decisions made by federal and provincial courts and tribunals, and bylaws applicable to municipal organizations. You have political acumen and an understanding of the City's civic organization and administrative structure and the operation of Council and its committees.

Salary will be commensurate with experience.
