

Administrative Tribunals: Focus on Professional Discipline

This seminar applies to all lawyers who deal with an administrative tribunal process, with the focus of the seminar on the regulation of professions and professional discipline. Attend this seminar to hear James Casey, author of "The Regulation of Professions in Canada", discuss hot topics and recent cases in professional discipline. In addition, you will benefit from listening to experienced lawyers discuss the various perspectives of the professional discipline process. Don't miss this opportunity!

Keynote Speaker

James Casey, Q.C. was called to the Alberta Bar in 1988, the Northwest Territories Bar in 2006 and is with the Edmonton firm, Field Law. James was the head of the firm's Edmonton Labour and Employment Group and its Professional Regulatory Group, and in 2008 became the firm's Managing Partner. James' primary areas of practice are professional regulation, labour and employment law and administrative law.

James is the author of numerous publications including two books "The Regulation of Professions in Canada" and "A Guide to the Health Professions Act." He acts as legal counsel for numerous professional organizations providing advice in all areas of professional regulation including legislation, discipline, scope of practice and government relations. James has been named as a leading lawyer in Lexpert in the areas of labour relations and employment law and was included in the inaugural edition of "Best Lawyers in Canada" in the areas of labour and employment law and alternative dispute resolution.
