Keynote Speaker:

Partner—Olive Waller Zinkhan & Waller LLP

The CLE Select Seminar Series is an Exclusive CLE Opportunity for Senior Practitioners

TECHNOLOGY UPDATE FOR POCKET CALCULATOR USERS

For many practitioners who pre-date computers, technology and its rapid changes can represent a daunting problem in both our personal and professional lives. Between the extremes of trying to avoid new technology, and becoming a "techno-geek" lies the middle ground of adopting technology that works for you and not the other way around.

Fred Zinkhan, our keynote speaker (who pre-dates computers), will discuss how we can selectively use technology to make our professional practices more effective and our lives less complicated. The focus of the presentation will not be technical in nature and Blackberries and laptops can be left at home.

Fred is a founding partner with Olive Waller Zinkhan and Waller LLP, a Regina based firm, and practises primarily in the area of civil litigation.
