

An Update on Privacy & Access Law

With ever evolving technology, issues of privacy are becoming increasingly more prevalent in a variety of fields. Access and Privacy Law touches many areas such as employment, health and business law. It is also a factor with respect to the media, as well as a cause for civil liability.

Join local experts for an informative update and assessment of privacy and access issues in this day and age.

Don't miss this exciting opportunity!

Begin the day with an extensive ethical component surrounding safeguards and responsibilities with respect to obtaining and handling information. Next, cover the basics on access to information with the Privacy Commissioner himself including what to expect from their office and a discussion of the scope of the legislation. Finish off the morning with an interesting look at the presence of privacy and access law as it relates to torts.

The afternoon will start with an update on Federal Legislation including FINTRAC, PIPEDA and CASL. The rest of the afternoon allows you to delve into a variety of areas, choosing from two sets of concurrent sessions; focus on areas most relevant to your practice! Choose to attend sessions pertaining to the intersection of Privacy and Access Law in the context of Employment Law or Health Law. Followed by a choice between Business Law or Privacy and the Media.

This broad program promises a detailed look at a variety of areas which no doubt provides insight into your daily practice!
