

BENCHER VACANCY AT THE LAW SOCIETY OF SASKATCHEWAN

The Law Society is now accepting applications for the position of Bencher.

The resignation of Rosanne Newman, Q.C., from the North East Electoral District, leaves a Bencher vacancy. Pursuant to Section 20 of The Legal Profession Act, 1990 (the "Act") the Benchers are entitled to appoint a replacement.

The Law Society regulates the legal profession in the public interest and is involved in a broad range of activities. Preference will be given to applicants with knowledge and experience that make a positive contribution to one or more of the following:

- Professional regulation
- Administrative law
- Professional education
- Libraries and information management
- Professional liability Insurance
- Law office management
- Board governance
- Strategic planning
- Risk management
- Access to legal services
- Human Resources
- Financial management
- Tribunals/decision-writing
- Investigation
- Public relations/communication
- Insurance
- Conflict resolution/mediation

All applicants must be members of the Law Society in good standing. Although applicants are not required by the Act to have a principle place of practice or employment in the North East Electoral District, preference may be given to those applicants.

Please submit your resume and covering letter to Timothy J. Brown before March 6, 2017 via his assistant's address: llynchuk@lawsociety.sk.ca.
