Mentoring, Within and Without the Legal Profession

The Law Society is delighted to welcome Aaron Fox, Q.C. of McDougall Gauley LLP to present this interesting session. Aaron received a B.A. (English) in 1974 and L.L.B. in 1977 from the University of Saskatchewan. He was called to the Bar in Saskatchewan in 1978 and was appointed Queen's Counsel in 1997. Aaron's primary areas of practice are criminal law, civil litigation and professional discipline. In 1990, he became a partner with McDougall Gauley LLP. Aaron was inducted as a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers in 2001.

This informative presentation will speak to the importance of mentorship, both within and without the legal profession. You will learn practical ways to apply mentoring within the legal profession; as well as visiting ways to mentor outside the legal profession in well-established areas and some non-traditional areas where one's initiative and imagination will be required.

Don't miss out on this great opportunity to join the Law Society and Aaron Fox, Q.C. for dinner and an after discussion on mentorship.

CPD Select Seminars are available to all practitioners with 25+ years of experience. These dinner meetings are designed to address CPD topics specifically from the more senior practitioner's point of view.
