Free Legal Resource Fair

Tradeshow

One of the main attractions of the Free Legal Resource Fair is the tradeshow which gives members of the public in Saskatchewan an opportunity to connect and receive information from legal non-profit, government departments, and community organizations. The tradeshow is designed to allow a come-and-go style interaction.

- Time: 4:30 - 8:00 pm
- Location: Frances Morrison Central Library – Main Level
- Target Audience: Members of the public and public library staff
- Contributors: Various justice stakeholders and Frances Morrison Central Library

McKercher Lecture Series: How can your library help you access legal information?

Janet Freeman, the original coordinator of the LawMatters at Your Local Public Library Program with Courthouse Libraries in British Columbia, will talk about how libraries can fill a much needed gap in accessibility to legal information. Legal education resources and other tools exist at the library, to help the public understand legal information. Learn about how tools developed with and for the public library can help the public access the law. The presentation will allow time for questions.

- Time: 7:00 - 8:00 pm
- Location: Frances Morrison Central Library – Theatre
- Target Audience: Members of the public, public library staff, and lawyers (this lecture qualifies for 1CPD hour for lawyers).
- Contributors: Partners of the Saskatchewan Access to Legal Information Project and Frances Morrison Central Library
- Event Sponsor: McKercher Lecture Series at the College of Law

Walk-in Family Law Information Clinic

A free legal information clinic will be hosted by the Ministry of Justice, Pro Bono Saskatchewan volunteer lawyers, Pro Bono Students Canada, and the Public Legal Education Association (PLEA). The clinic will provide an opportunity for individuals with family law issues to meet with a volunteer lawyer and/or law student for up to 30 minutes to ask questions about family law relevant to their situation.

- Time: 6:30 - 8:30 pm
- Location: Frances Morrison Central Library – Lower Level
- Target Audience: Members of the public
- Contributors: Ministry of Justice, Pro Bono Saskatchewan volunteer lawyers, Pro Bono Students Canada, and PLEA
