

QUEEN'S COUNSEL SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Law Society of Saskatchewan is inviting applications for appointment to the Queen's Counsel Selection Committee.

The designation of Queen's Counsel is made by the Minister of Justice through a selection process that includes consultation with the Law Society of Saskatchewan, the Canadian Bar Association and the Courts.

Applications to the Law Society are reviewed by the Queen's Counsel Selection Committee which consists of the following:

- Past President of the Law Society
- A current Bencher of the Law Society
- A public representative appointed to the Law Society
- A member of the Law Society

Members interested in participating on this committee should forward an expression of interest to Tim Brown, Q.C., Executive Director, by May 18, 2018. Please submit a covering letter and curriculum vitae to his assistant Liz at liz.lynchuk@lawsociety.sk.ca.
