Nychuk & Company is a full service firm with a reputation for hard work and achieving great results for our clients. We are looking to add a passionate and highly motivated associate with a strong litigation background to join our firm. Lawyers at Nychuk & Company practice in diverse areas and all associates are encouraged to be familiar with many areas of law. The practice in this position may include criminal, civil, and family law.

The successful candidate will have strong interpersonal, organizational, and communication skills. You will have strong advocacy skills, be able to work in a team environment, and manage a busy practice doing great work for clients. As an associate at our firm you will take on a large degree of responsibility and independence.

Nychuk & Company offers compensation that is competitive with respect to salary, extended health benefits, and vacation. Candidates must be members of or eligible for membership in the Law Society of Saskatchewan.

This position is available immediately. Applications, including CV and a cover letter, will be received at lawoffice@nychuklaw.com.
