

Nolan was raised in Kamsack, Saskatchewan. After receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Regina in 2003, he attended law school at the University of Saskatchewan, receiving his Bachelor of Laws degree (with distinction) in 2007.

Nolan articulated with the Court of Queen's Bench and was called to the bar in 2008. He is a partner at Leland Campbell Kondratoff Persick LLP. His areas of practice focus on Corporate/Commercial Law, Commercial and Residential Real Estate, Wills, Estates and Trusts. He has been a Learning Group facilitator for the Contracts section of the CPLED course since 2014.

If elected, Nolan hopes to focus on matters such as continuing education for new and existing practitioners, as well as looking for ways to encourage rural practice given the changing demographic of the Saskatchewan Bar.
