

Biographical Information- Andrea V. Argue

Andrea obtained her LL.B., with Great Distinction from the University of Saskatchewan in 2001. She then served Articles of Clerkship to Bayda C.J.S. and Sherstobitoff J.A. of the Court of Appeal for Saskatchewan.

After admission to the Law Society of Saskatchewan in 2002, Andrea began her legal career in private practise in Swift Current. Andrea remains in private practise in Swift Current, now as a partner with Kanuka Thuringer LLP. Andrea practices primarily in the areas of estate planning and estate administration, corporate and commercial law, real estate, business organization and succession. A significant part of Andrea's practice is agriculturally related: she advises primary producers in general business matters, and has a specific interest in the unique legal challenges and opportunities farmers face in their operations and estate planning. Andrea comes from a farming family, and she and her husband have a farming operation which provides her with a familiarity with agricultural issues.

Andrea volunteers as a presenter on a number of professional topics, and also serves as a member of the Stewart Valley School Community Council.

Reasons for Seeking Election as a Bencher - Andrea V. Argue

Self- governance of the legal profession is a privilege. As with any other privilege, there is attendant responsibility. If afforded the opportunity to serve as a Bencher, I hope to make a meaningful contribution as a member of the legal profession in discharging the obligations of self-governance in the public interest.
