

Civility and Professionalism: Putting Theory into Practice

By

W. Brent Gough Q.C.

Court Room Decorum Judge Allan Fradsham

WHY?

Professionalism

Marketing

Sanctions

What is Civility?

Groia v. Law Society of Upper Canada, 2018 SCC 27

Sources of the Obligation to be Civil

- Courts
- Codes of Conduct
- Sets of Principles of Civility in Some Provinces
- Personal Ethics

Encountering Uncivil Behaviour

- Breathe
- Review
- Consult
- Anticipate

References

- Courtroom Decorum, Judge Allan Fradsham, Provincial Court of Alberta, Canadian Centre for Professional Legal Education
- A Negotiating Ethics Study, Marjorie L. Benson, Canadian Bar Review, Volume 84, 2006, pages 597-598.
- Civility and Decorum in the Courtroom, CPLED, August 2014, Justice Richard Danyliuk
- Ethics and Professional Responsibility in Chambers Advocacy, Heather Laing
- Attorneys and Negotiation Ethics: A Material Misunderstanding? Hinshaw, Reilly and Schneider, 29 Negotiation Journal 265 (2013)
- Civility, Ethical Negotiations Seminar, Law Society of Saskatchewan CPD, 2014, Gough
- Code of Professional Conduct, The Law Society of Saskatchewan, Chapters 5 and 7.
- Reasonableness, Civility and Tea Parties: SCC Weighs In On Groia v. Law Society of Upper Canada, June 22, 2018, Thomson Reuters Practical Law Canada.