

Looking for a career with purpose and passion?

Crown Prosecutor

Ministry of Justice
Prince Albert, SK

Public Prosecutions prosecutes those charged under the Criminal Code, Youth Criminal Justice Act, some other federal statutes, and some provincial statutes. As a Crown Prosecutor, you will help deliver justice through fair and effective prosecutions. Sound legal expertise and excellent inter-personal skills will make you an integral part of preserving and improving public safety and the lives of people in our communities.

Under the direction of the Regional Crown Prosecutor, you will be responsible for a multitude of duties and decisions. Primary duties will be the carriage of criminal, quasi-criminal, and regulatory prosecutions in the Provincial Court for Saskatchewan and the Court of Queen's Bench for Saskatchewan. Such carriage will include docket court work, trial work, and summary conviction appeals. Other duties will include giving legal opinions, reviewing police reports, and advising police as appropriate. The successful candidate will be expected to participate in legal education in the areas of criminal law, ethics, and the like.

The successful candidate will:

- Be eligible for membership and, on an ongoing basis, hold a membership in good standing with the Law Society of Saskatchewan;
- Satisfactorily pass a criminal record check;
- Have litigation experience in the practice of criminal law;
- Have outstanding oral communication and presentation skills;
- Have superior written communication skills;
- Have excellent interpersonal skills;
- Have excellent analytical skills;
- Have effective case management and organization skills;
- Have the ability to meet short deadlines, working independently and as part of a team; and,
- Have experience and proficiency with computer software applications including legal research applications and MS Office. Experience with CJIMS is considered an asset, but not required.

The hours of work can vary and include working evenings and weekends when duties require. Travel by road and air is required, with work possibly requiring overnight stays in other communities.

Closing Date: September 4, 2020

Competition Number: HUM009714
