Roundtable Discussion
Labour Law

The Law Society is excited to begin offering a new CPD programming format defined by area of law. The inaugural event in this series will be dedicated to Labour Law and will be focused around the recent Supreme Court of Canada decision in Wilson vs. Atomic Energy.

The decision will offer a kicking-off point for an engaging and dynamic roundtable discussion which will allow lawyers in this area to interact with their peers on a topic which greatly impacts their daily practice.

Both the Union and Employer perspectives will be thoroughly addressed and to ensure a high level of dialogue and conversation the session will be co-chaired by Susan Barber, Q.C. and Rick Engel, Q.C., two of the provinces most prominent and accomplished Labour lawyers.
