Legal Resource Spotlight

___

Curious about what new laws were passed by the Legislative Assembly in Saskatchewan last year? But not sure where to look?

___

Did you know that the Saskatchewan Ministry of Justice and Attorney publishes short plain language summaries of Saskatchewan's new laws passed each year in an online document called the Justice Update?

___

You can check out latest Justice Update from 2021 as well as updates from previous years here!

Law Resources List for Libraries

The Law Society of Saskatchewan Legal Resources Library Team is excited to announce a new legal information resource for libraries!

They have created a curated list of resources relevant to Saskatchewan for libraries, of any type, wishing to strengthen and add resources to their public legal information collections. These lists, updated regularly, concentrate on resources aligned to legal need in the most common areas of law in the province.

Titles are grouped by legal topic, indicating publisher, publication date, and price. Key online publications are also included for each legal area. Lists currently available include the following:

Area of Law	List Currency
General Law Titles	Updated January 2022
Aboriginal & Indigenous Law Titles	Updated January 2022
Citizenship, Immigration, and Refugee Law Titles	Updated January 2022
Criminal Law Titles	Updated January 2022
Employment Law Titles	Updated January 2022
Family Law Titles	Updated January 2022
Wills & Estate Law Titles	Updated January 2022

For further information and advice on legal collection development, you are invited to please contact the Law Society's friendly Legal Resources Library team at reference@lawsociety.sk.ca, 306-569-8020, or online at our website.

They would welcome any feedback you have on this this resource, or suggestions for new resources to add.
