

Student Guide to Articling Requirements in Saskatchewan

Introduction

Congratulations on your admission as a Student-at-Law! This brief Guide will provide you with information on articling in Saskatchewan. It is an overview reference resource rather than a comprehensive outline of Law Society policies that may apply to students, Principals, or articling.

You should use this Guide to better understand the key Law Society requirements that you must meet before you can be admitted as a lawyer in Saskatchewan.

You can find additional information on articling and bar admissions processes on the Law Society's website at Articling in Saskatchewan and in Part 7 of the Law Society of Saskatchewan Rules.

PREP Bar Admissions Course

You are required to complete the Practice Readiness Education Program (PREP). This program, in combination with the articling process, forms the licensing process for Students-at-Law. PREP is a multi-jurisdictional program required in the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, and Nova Scotia. PREP builds on the training and education obtained through a law degree and helps develop and assess the skills necessary to competently serve the public upon admission to the practice of law.

The Canadian Centre for Professional Legal Education administers PREP. To register for or learn more about PREP, please visit www.cpled.ca. Questions regarding PREP registration, schedule, program, or payment may be directed to admin@cpled.ca.

Filing and Other Requirements

In addition to completing PREP and articles, before you can be admitted as a lawyer, the Law Society requires you to:

- file certain applications, agreements, and reports, and
- complete both a New Student Orientation and a New Lawyer Orientation.

You are not eligible for admission to the Bar until you have successfully completed the articling term, PREP, the New Student Orientation, the New Lawyer Orientation, and have filed all required forms, agreements, and reports. These requirements appear in list form in the following chart, and it is your responsibility to ensure that each is met. Unmet obligations may delay your call to the Bar.

Please enter the requirements and deadlines into your calendar.

All applications, forms, and reports can be directed to Cheryl Eberle, Membership Officer. The Law Society's Learning Management System notifies us when you have completed the New Student and New Lawyer orientations, and you are required to complete and submit a declaration which is only accessible once these orientations are completed.

Secondments of Articles

Under rule 709 a Principal may permit you to work in the office of another member who has been approved to act as a Principal, or to a court pursuant to rule 707, for a total of two months during your articling term.

Leaves of Absence

Should you require a leave of absence, special consideration must be given to how this affects your fulfillment of the articling placement and the needs of your Principal's practice. Please contact the Law Society to discuss administrative obligations and options. Depending on the length of the leave, we may require that you extend the end date of the articling term to accommodate your time away.

Terminating an Articling Agreement

A Principal or Student-at-Law, for compelling reasons, may terminate the Articling Agreement. If such action is being considered, you must notify the Law Society in advance of termination. Where either party wishes to terminate the Articling Agreement, reasonable notice must be provided. During the notice period, both parties must continue the articling relationship in accordance with the Articling Agreement and Articling Plan. It is the student's responsibility to find another articling placement.

Where a Principal must withdraw from their articling commitments, the Principal should take all reasonable steps to help find an appropriate alternative placement for their student. This may include assisting the student in obtaining interviews and providing the student with a reference letter specifying that the student is looking for a new articling placement through no fault of their own.

Once a new articling placement is secured, the student, the previous Principal and the new Principal must execute and file an Assignment of Articles Agreement \(Form A-4\). The previous Principal must submit the Affidavit of Lawyer or Supervisory Judge with whom Student has Served under Articles \(Form A-9\). The fee for the Assignment of Articles Agreement is $175 + GST. There is no fee for the Affidavit.

Your Member Profile

Your Member Profile is the hub for your Law Society records. You will receive an email from no-reply@softworksgroup.com with instructions on how to set up your Member Profile account. This email may go into your junk folder. Once you set up your Member Profile account, you can access your Student-at-Law ID Card from the home screen by clicking the "Permit" tab. It is important that your Member Profile be complete and remain up to date as the Law Society uses this information to contact you when needed. To review, edit and complete your Member Profile, log in to your Member Profile, select "My profile" and click on "Edit profile".

Member Resources

The Law Society supports the legal information needs of members, articling students, and the public by providing an online and print library collection, legal information services, legal research assistance, and a variety of Saskatchewan-focused legal publications. The Member Resource Section is our members-only online law library. It is your gateway to the online resources and databases that the Law Society subscribes to.

Our reference librarians offer legal research assistance to members. Contact them if you need help locating a text, case, statute, or journal article, would like advice about legal research, would like a point of law researched, need a statute traced, or would like a database searched. Your Member Resource Account is separate from your Member Profile. It allows you access to the Member Resource Section, to the New Student and New Lawyer orientations, and to the Online Store where you can register for continuing professional development (CPD) programs and purchase other resources.

You will receive an email from webmaster@lawsociety.sk.ca with login details for this account and a link to set your password. It may take the Law Society several days to set up your account, so please do not attempt to access your account until you receive an email with login details.

Supports for Articling Students

We recognize that articling is busy and challenging and that difficulties may arise during the articling term for a variety of reasons, both personal and professional.

If issues arise, you may benefit from the services of the Member Assistance Program (MAP) delivered through Manitoba Blue Cross. All categories of Active and Inactive members of the Law Society of Saskatchewan and Students-at-Law are eligible for free, confidential support through the MAP. You may enroll in the program by filling out a registration form and returning it to Manitoba Blue Cross via email to MBCgroupbenefits@mb.bluecross.ca or fax to 1-204-772-1231. For more information, please visit the Law Society webpage on Health and Wellness.

The Law Society Equity Office provides neutral and confidential assistance to lawyers, articling students, and their support staff who ask for help in resolving complaints of discrimination or harassment. A call to the Equity Office is not a complaint to the Law Society. Calls and emails to the Equity Office are confidential, and except for information about the misappropriation of funds, the Equity Office reports only anonymous statistics to the Law Society. You can reach the Equity Office at 1-866-444-4885 or equity@lawsociety.sk.ca.
