SALI

SASKATCHEWAN ACCESS
TO LEGAL INFORMATION

1. Introducing Legal Information

▶ What is Legal Information?

- ▶ “...characterized as being general information about the law.” (Final Report of the Saskatchewan Legal Services Task Term Report)
- ▶ “...general information about the law and legal procedures. It helps the public learn about legal problems, the law, and ways of resolving problems through the legal system.” (Law Society of Saskatchewan Legal Information Guidelines)

▶ Why is Legal Information Important?

- ▶ Having access to legal information enables people to identify the full range of legal options available to them and may prompt them to seek legal assistance

SALI

SASKATCHEWAN ACCESS
TO LEGAL INFORMATION

1. Introducing Legal Information

- ▶ The “Challenges” of Legal Information

- ▶ Despite being a critical component in improving access to justice, it is often difficult for the public to find and access legal information

- ▶ Why?

- ▶ Legalese, jurisdiction, language, literacy, internet access, the quality of online information, etc.

SALI

SASKATCHEWAN ACCESS
TO LEGAL INFORMATION

1. Introducing Legal Information

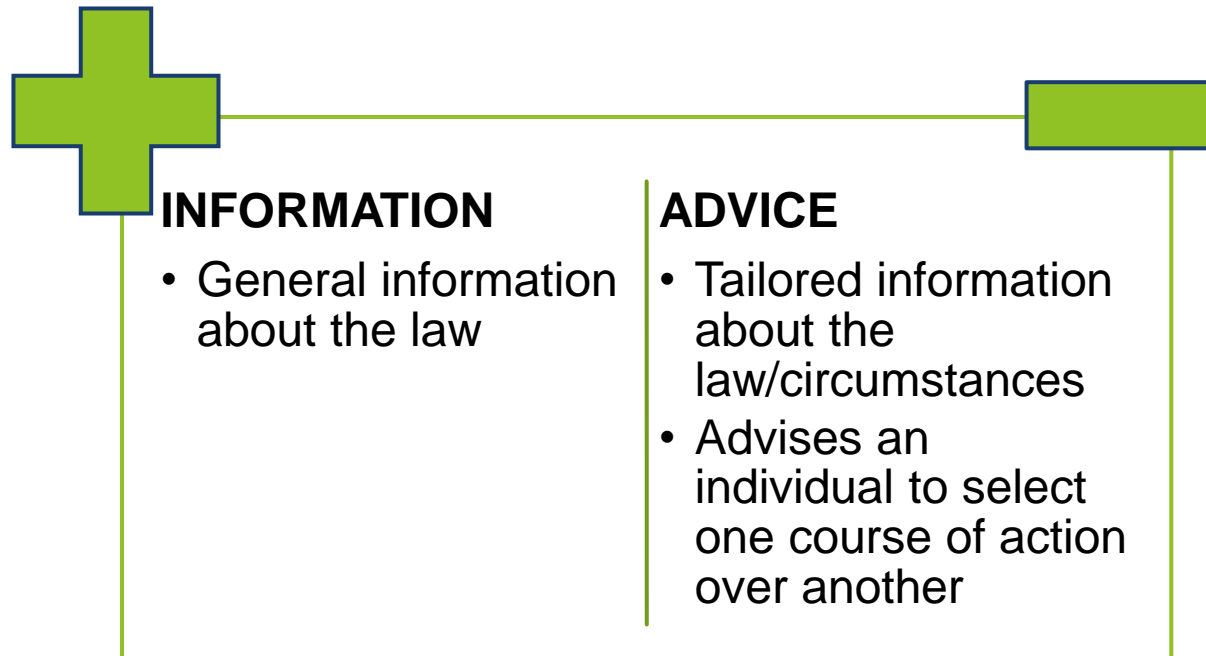

- ▶ How Can You and Your Organization Help?
 - ▶ You know your clients and their needs best
 - ▶ You serve your clients, facilitating access to information
 - ▶ You can make accurate referrals to organizations that provide legal assistance

► Legal Information Versus Legal Advice?

2. Legal Information Guidelines

SALI

SASKATCHEWAN ACCESS
TO LEGAL INFORMATION

2. Legal Information Guidelines

- ▶ Saskatchewan's Legal Information Guidelines
- ▶ Facilitate access to credible legal information in Saskatchewan
- ▶ Encourage the dissemination of legal information
- ▶ Empower service providers by outlining how they can help their clients with legal information

2. Legal Information Guidelines

- ▶ Saskatchewan's Legal Information Guidelines
- ▶ What is legal information?
- ▶ Who can provide legal information?
- ▶ What are considerations for the public?
- ▶ What are the considerations for legal information providers?
- ▶ Ways of giving legal information and types of legal information

2. Legal Information Guidelines

- ▶ Saskatchewan's Legal Information Guidelines
- ▶ What Makes Legal Information credible? Consider the:
 - ▶ Education, training and experience of the creator or author
 - ▶ Source and its authority, purpose, and objectivity
 - ▶ Jurisdiction, currency, and applicability of the information

2. Legal Information Guidelines

- ▶ Saskatchewan's Legal Information Guidelines
- ▶ The Guidelines specify ways of giving legal information and the types of legal information that may be provided:
- ▶ Helping a person FIND credible legal information
- ▶ Helping a person USE information from credible legal resources
- ▶ Examples of PROVIDING legal information

2. Legal Information Guidelines

▶ Helping a Person FIND Credible Legal Information

Common examples of credible legal information resources may be in print, online, video, and audio formats and include:

- Public legal education materials
- Legal dictionaries
- Legislation
- Case law
- Court rules and procedural guides
- Guides on how to conduct legal research on certain legal topics such as landlord/tenant law, the rules of evidence, or how to obtain information from an opposing party

SALI

2. Legal Information Guidelines

▶ Helping a Person USE Credible Legal Information Resources

Providing help on how to use credible legal resources may include:

- Helping find a resource
- Encouraging consultation of credible resources
- Suggesting the legal topic within a resource to look for
- Searching the resource and directing to specific content
- Helping to understand the meaning of the content presented within the resource
- Suggesting how the legal information found in the resource applies to a situation as long as there is no recommendation concerning the action a person should take; and qualified with a warning to consult a licensed member of the Law Society to be sure about the application of the legal information to their situation.

2. Legal Information Guidelines

- ▶ Examples of PROVIDING Legal Information May Include:

Providing legal information may include:

- Naming a legal problem
- Explaining a legal term or process
- Finding what form needs to be completed and filed
- Explaining the meaning of terms used in forms
- Helping to complete a form
- Explaining the process for filing forms
- Describing the requirements for service and helping complete the process
- Calculating child support or spousal support payments based on guidelines
- Assisting in the assembly and organization of evidence for hearings

SALI

2. Legal Information Guidelines

▶ Saskatchewan's Legal Information Guidelines

- ▶ Qualifications While Providing Legal Information:
- ▶ Qualify you are not a lawyer and that the person should consult a lawyer if they want to be sure about the application of the legal information to their situation
- ▶ Only provide legal information to the extent that you are qualified and trained to do so
- ▶ Tell the person about your qualifications to provide legal information
- ▶ Provide credible information relevant to the appropriate jurisdiction
- ▶ Be aware that some sources of legal information may be inaccurate or unreliable

3. Making the Connection to Legal Information

SALI

SASKATCHEWAN ACCESS
TO LEGAL INFORMATION

3. Making the Connection

- ▶ Recognizing the Need for Legal Information
 - ▶ Is a member of the public:
 - ▶ Describing a life event?
 - ▶ Showing you legal documents?
 - ▶ Making statements that flag a legal issue?
 - ▶ Detecting Legal Problems resource: Detect legal issues and connect those issues to targeted sources of legal information, legal assistance, and community support

SALI

SASKATCHEWAN ACCESS
TO LEGAL INFORMATION

3. Making the Connection

- ▶ Setting the Stage For a Successful Legal Information Interaction
- ▶ Begin the interaction by setting clear expectations:
- ▶ Indicate that you are not a lawyer and communicate the scope of information you are qualified to provide
- ▶ “I can get you started with some information on that topic, but I’m not able to provide legal advice or answers specific to your individual situation”

3. Making the Connection

- ▶ Setting the Stage For a Successful Legal Information Interaction
- ▶ During the interaction:
 - ▶ Ask open-ended questions that encourage the person to articulate what they are looking for in their own words
 - ▶ “What do you mean by appealing the finding exactly?”
 - ▶ “Can you explain that for me, please?”

3. Making the Connection

- ▶ Setting the Stage For a Successful Legal Information Interaction
- ▶ During the interaction:
- ▶ Continue to reinforce the expectations
- ▶ Avoid commenting on a person's specific legal situation
- ▶ Try using words like may or might or it appears rather than a clear-cut yes or no

3. Making the Connection

- ▶ Setting the Stage For a Successful Legal Information Interaction
- ▶ Move beyond legal information
- ▶ Encourage the person to obtain legal advice from a lawyer or legal professional
- ▶ Make an effective referral
- ▶ “It sounds like you are looking for more than general legal information on this topic. You may wish to speak to a lawyer to obtain legal advice.”
