

Family Lawyer

Riverside Family Law is growing. We're seeking 1-2 Associate Family Lawyers to join our team. You'll work closely with clients, handling their family law matters both in and out of court. Your focus will be primarily on issues related to parenting, support, property division, divorce, prenups and other contracts.

The ideal candidate will possess:

- Integrity
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Collaborative, team-oriented mindset
- Ability to handle files independently
- Enthusiasm for a career in family law

Who we are:

We are a well-established boutique family law office in Saskatoon with over 30 years experience. We strive to serve clients in a compassionate, reasonable, pragmatic, and client-focussed way. In doing so, we believe in growing and supporting a strong team and promoting work life balance for lawyers and staff hand in hand with financial and professional opportunities. We provide competitive compensation and benefits with performance incentives. Our office environment is friendly and supportive and we provide ongoing guidance and mentorship to our lawyers. If this resonates with you, you may be the perfect addition to our team.

Please email your cover letter and resume to Kelly Shaw at admin@riversidefamilylaw.ca
All applications will be kept in strict confidence.