Law Society
of Saskatchewan

Bill 163, an Act to amend The Legal Profession Act, 1990, was introduced in the Saskatchewan Legislature on December 3, 2018 and The Legal Profession Amendment Act, 2019 received Royal Assent on May 15, 2019. The provisions of Bill 163 relating to limited licensees were not advanced at that time pending the development of the necessary framework to support the delivery of legal services by limited licensees in Saskatchewan. This work is complete, and the remaining provisions were proclaimed into force on October 1, 2025.

The Law Society of Saskatchewan Rules have been redrafted to align with the statutory changes to include limited licensees as recognized members of the Law Society, entitled to engage in the limited practice of law in accordance with The Legal Profession Act, 1990, and these Rules.
